

SPRING 2019 SEMINAR SERIES

Professional Development for National & International Service & Scholarship Opportunities

Mondays | 5:30 pm | 207A Newman Library

A weekly series of 1 ½ -hour seminars intended to inform and prepare students to improve their competitiveness for national opportunities, such as scholarships, fellowships, REUs, graduate and professional programs. Weekly seminars will include experts from across the university and are designed to help students at any academic level improve their network and awareness of resources.

January 28 - Introductions to Opportunities for Students

February 4 - Application Essays & Reflection

February 11 - Writing Personal Statements

February 18 - Library Resources

February 25 - Navigating Letters of Recommendations

March 4 - Crafting - Resumes & Curriculum Vitae

March 11 - SPRING BREAK

March 18 - Demystifying the Mystery of How are Applications Reviewed

March 25 - Co-Curricular Experiences / Gaining Experience in Your Field

April 1 - Extra-curricular Experiences / Authentic Personal & Professional Development

April 8 - Identifying Global Experiences That Work for YOU

April 15 - Current World Events and How They Impact your Field

April 22 - The Art of Interviews & Conversation

April 29 - Resume of Future Self

May 6 - End of Semester Wrap-up and Celebration

Christina McIntyre
Director of Major Scholarships
cmcintyre@vt.edu

Betty Anderson
Global Initiatives Coordinator
betty.anderson@vt.edu